

Woodside High School

Athlete of the Week

September 10, 2018

Brody Crowley

The athlete of the week is junior Brody Crowley. Brody is the quarterback on the varsity football team. Brody has been playing football for three years. He likes football because it is a physical and competitive team sport. Brody practices everyday to maintain his position and good play on the team. When not playing football, Brody concentrates on his school work to maintain his good academic standing. Coach Andrews about Brody, "He is really becoming a leader and inspiring his teammates to practice better." He plans on playing college sports after he graduates from Woodside. His hobbies include baseball and video games. His favorite pregame ritual is praying. Brody's favorite snack is Gushers.
