

No, hours do not roll over. Students must complete a new application before each semester and summer.