Athlete of the Week

November 12, 2019

Molly Buddie

The Athlete of the Week is Molly Buddie. Molly is a senior setter on the varsity volleyball team. She has been playing volleyball year-round for seven years and is a highly experienced volleyball player. She balances her academics and athletics by effectively managing her time, getting sleep when needed, and always putting school first. If Molly were given the opportunity to compete against anyone, it would be Kerri Walsh Jennings. Her biggest inspiration is her dad because he is her biggest supporter, her best friend, and puts everyone in his life before himself. Molly chose to play volleyball as her main sport in sixth grade because after a year of playing she couldn't see herself being as passionate about any other sport other than volleyball. Of the "8 Conditions," Molly resonates most with Sense of Accomplishment because win or lose, both her and the WHS team always play to the best of their ability which allows them to be an accomplished team.
