

SENIOR DETAILS FOR YEARBOOK

CLASS OF 2020

These are real deadlines. We submit these pages to the publisher right after we get this info from you. So if you do not meet these deadlines there is NO guarantee we can get it printed in the Yearbook! For questions see Mrs. With in D7 or email her at lwith@seq.org. Students do not have to complete all parts but they must meet the required deadlines.

KEY DEADLINES:

Senior Portrait	--- January 9, 2020
Senior Quote and Baby Photo	--- January 17, 2020
Senior Ad	--- January 31, 2020

Senior portraits: All students should have already taken their senior portrait. If you have not, please see Mrs. With in D7 as soon as possible. Students should have selected the senior portrait to be used in the yearbook. It needs to have a sky-blue background and a vertical/portrait layout. If you need to check on your senior portrait pose, please check in with Mrs. With in D-7 on January 9, 2020, after school.

Baby Picture: To have your baby picture in the yearbook, please turn it into D7 or email it to Mrs. With at lwith@seq.org by January 17, 2020. Write your first and last name and student ID number on the back of the photo to ensure it is next to the correct portrait. If emailing the photo, please be sure to include the first and last name of the student and make sure the photo is sent 'actual size'. If there is more than one person in the photo, make it clear which person/baby is you. Every effort will be made to return baby photos, most likely in April.

Senior Ads: Seniors (or their friends and parents) can purchase ad space to celebrate their achievements. Appropriate language and content are expected. Ads with inappropriate content will not be printed. Ads ready to scan or ads in digital form (high resolution at 300 dpi) are accepted. Go to D7 for more information.

Senior Ads are due January 31, 2020. The Ads can be completed online at JostensAdService.com

Senior Quote:

Senior quotes are text that students are welcome to include in the yearbook to which their peers will remember them by and is representative of the student. Some students choose to do a direct quote, like a saying or a line from a song. Some like to use the space to thank those who have inspired them. The quote can only be 150 characters in length, including spaces. Students can submit their quotes online at bit.ly/seniorquotewhs. Senior Quotes must be submitted by January 17, 2020. When writing your senior quote, remember it will be seen by many people. Students are reminded to be kind and respectful to others. Anything questionable will not be included and students will not be notified.

- Quote must be 150 characters or less. No additional shout-outs, code messages, hashtags or numbers. Anything longer than 150 characters will be cut off. If we cannot read it or understand it, it will not be printed.
- Do not format. Any centering, bolding, italics or underlining will not be kept.
- Offensive terms/words, text codes, hashtags or special characters will be rejected!

- Be appropriate; the school's administration is going to approve it and your grandma's going to read it. If your quote is not approved or inappropriate, it will not be printed (you will not be notified).
- Don't plagiarize. Give credit to the speaker of your quote if you select somebody else's words.
- Quotes in other languages must be translated underneath to ensure appropriateness.

Senior Quotes

Senior quotes will be placed under senior portraits in the yearbook. The quote can only be 150 characters in length, including spaces.
